

William III silver "pocket piece" laudatory medal

£180

REF: 3696

Diameter: 1 cm (0.4")

Description

Very elegantly executed small silver medal struck in honour of William III by John Roettier at the Royal Mint, 1689. Obverse: Bust of William III, right, laureate, with hair long and with no drapery. Legend: GVLIEMVS . III . DEI . GRA. Reverse: Full meridian sun. Legend above: NON . DEVIO. (I do not deviate)