Description

Very attractive sterling silver chamber stick with matching snuffer.

Sheffield 1830 by Howard & Hawksworth Battie. The base of the chamber stick is made in the shape of a shell. The curved rim of the nozzle echoes the design of the shell.

The full set of hallmarks are clearly stamped on the front of the base of the chamber stick as well as on the inside of the nozzle. The same hallmarks are stamped on the snuffer.

A contemporary crest of a Moors head facing left is engraved on the nozzle and thumb-piece of the chamber stick and also on the snuffer.
