

Victorian Crested Pair of sterling silver fiddle thread and shell gravy ladles by George Adams. London 1862.

GEORGE ADAMS, London

Sold

Description

Handsome pair of Victorian sterling silver crested fiddle thread and shell gravy ladles of good weight.
Maker: George Adams. London 1862.

Each ladle is engraved with a lion standing on a coronet.
The full set of hallmarks and maker's mark is stamped on the reverse of the tip of the handle.

Length: 7.3 inches (18.5cm)
Weight: 4.2 troy ounces (130.6 grams) the pair.