

WILLIAM IV Sterling Silver Fish Slice by William Chawner II. London
1833.

£600

William Chawner II

Description

Impressive WILLIAM IV sterling silver fish slice of very good weight.
Maker: William Chawner II. London 1833.

This fish slice has a decorative pattern on the blade and an imposing design on the handle.
The full set of hallmarks and makers mark are clearly struck on the reverse of the blade.

Length: 12.8 inches (60cm)

Width: 2.9 inches (7.4cm)

Weight: 9 troy ounces (280 grams)