SANDA LIPTON
ANTIQUE SILVER

Medway Rowing Club silver prize medal

Sold

Sanda Lipton Antique Silver
Suite 202, 2 Lansdowne Row, Berkeley Square, London, W1J 6HL

REF: 2839

Diameter: 2 cm (0.8")

Description

Victorian sterling silver Medway Rowing Club prize medal presented in 1897. Hallmarked Birmingham 1896. Obverse: Within a shield, a horse rampant facing left. Beneath on scrolled ribbon MEDWAY ROWING CLUB. Below: 1865. Reverse: CLUB PAIRS./1897./E.A. GILL./ STROKE. Around the edge, a fruited laurel wreath. Just above the wreath are the Birmingham hallmarks for 1896 and beneath these the makers mark W & C probably for Warrington & Co. London.

The river Medway in south-east England rises in the Weald, flows north-east through Kent via Maidstone and the Medway Towns (Rochester, Chatham and Gillingham) and enters the Thames estuary at Sheerness. Length: 70 miles (113 km).

Sanda Lipton Antique Silver
Suite 202, 2 Lansdowne Row, Berkeley Square, London, W1J 6HL