REF: 8850

Description

Elegant and interesting GEORGE III silver gilt small serving fork which also incorporates the properties of a spoon.

Maker: George Smith. London 1797.

Although this item looks as though the prongs have been cut out of a spoon, this is perfectly genuine and has been intentionally made as a multi- purpose serving article.

The full set of hallmarks and makers mark are clearly stamped on the reverse side of the stem.

Length: 5.9 inches (15cm)

Weight: 0.9 troy ounces (28 grams)
