

Victorian Crested Pair of sterling silver fiddle thread and shell gravy ladles by George Adams. London 1862.

GEORGE ADAMS, London

Sold

REF: 8945

Description

Handsome pair of Victorian sterling silver crested fiddle thread and shell gravy ladles of good weight.
Maker: George Adams. London 1862.

Each ladle is engraved with a lion standing on a coronet.
The full set of hallmarks and maker's mark is stamped on the reverse of the tip of the handle.

Length: 7.3 inches (18.5cm)

Weight: 4.2 troy ounces (130.6 grams) the pair.