

WILLIAM & MARY Trefid Spoon by Lawrence Jones. London 1694.
Lawrence Jones

Sold

Description

Beautifully executed WILLIAM & MARY trefid spoon of very good weight.

Maker: Lawrence Jones. London 1694.

Engraved with a Widows lozenge and her Arms.

Arms: Widow of Sir John Stonehouse (1639-c1700) 2nd Baronet of Radley, impaling Briggs for his marriage (October 1668) to Martha, widow of Richard Spencer and heiress of Robert Briggs.

This is a beautiful spoon with very crisp hallmarks stamped on the reverse and the coat of arms indicates that this spoon is steeped in history.

Length: 8 inches (20.32cm)

Weight: 2.5 troy ounces (77.8 grams)