

SANDA LIPTON

ANTIQUÉ SILVER

A pair of sterling silver Queen Anne dognose tablespoons

SOLD

REF:- 162784

Height: 20 cm (7 3/4")

Short Description

An excellent pair of sterling silver Queen Anne dognose tablespoons of a very generous weight. Circa 1710. Makers mark only struck once on the reverse of each stem - CP crowned, as yet unasccribed. The end of the reverse of each stem is quite beautifully engraved with the Arms of Clarke, surrounded by an elaborate border of scrolls and fruit.

More Information

Year	c 1710
Medium	Silver
Origin	England
Signed	Makers mark only struck once on the reverse of each stem - CP crowned
Condition	Very slight wear to tips of spoons. Otherwise in excellent condition with very crisp engraving and makers mark and an extremely pleasing patina.