

SANDA LIPTON

ANTIQUÉ SILVER

VICTORIAN Pair Sterling Silver Tumbler Cups. London
1891.

£1,170

REF:- 334183

AUTHOR LABEL : James Wakely & Frank Clarke Wheeler, London

Short Description

Attractive pair of VICTORIAN sterling silver tumbler cups of good weight.

Makers: JAMES WAKELY & FRANK CLARKE WHEELER. London 1891.

The cups are engraved on one side with two coats of arms surmounted by a Dukes Coronet.

On the opposite side there is a latin inscription for Eton Kings Scholarship 1891. Tumbler cups have been used as drinking vessels throughout the Georgian era, especially in ships and carriages in order to stop spillages they are still used to this day as prizes or as a decorative way to serve drinks.

Diameter: 2.95 inches (7.5cm)

Heights: 2.24 inches (5.7cm)

Weight: 8.36 troy ounces (260 grams) the pair

More Information

Year	1891
Medium	Sterling silver
Origin	London
Condition	Excellent. One cup is slightly taller by 2cm.