

SANDA LIPTON

ANTIQUÉ SILVER

GEORGE III Sterling Silver Small Dish by James Warren.
Dublin circa 1760

£1,100

REF:- 342659

AUTHORLABEL : James Warren of Dublin

Short Description

Attractive sterling silver small dish circa 1760, either very early George III or late George II.

Maker: James Warren.

The dish has a crenelated border with raised ridges beneath. A contemporary crest of a bunch of grapes with two shamrocks behind is engraved in the centre.

The reverse is stamped with the makers mark which has been partially over-stamped by the Dublin harp with the Hibernia mark on the other side.

This a very pretty dish and it is quite possible that it was used as a counter dish.

Diameter: 5 inches (12.7cm)

Weight: 2.74 troy ounces (85.15 grams)

More Information

Year	1760
Medium	Sterling silver
Origin	Dublin
Condition	Condition. Very good with a very pleasing patina. There is a small dig visible on the upper left-hand side of the crest caused by the pressure of the stamping of an assay mark.